DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a composition having a total weight for topical application on a nail comprising gotu kola and a film former, classified in class 424, subclass 061.
- II. Claim 9, drawn to a topical nail application composition comprising a nail lacquer, at least one additional component and gotu kola, classified in class 424, subclass 061.
- III. Claim 11, drawn to a nail treatment application, classified in class 424 subclass 061.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have material different designs. Invention I is drawn to a composition comprising gotu kola and a film former, whereas Invention II is drawn to a topical nail application comprising a nail lacquer, at least one additional component and gotu kola.

Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have materially different designs. Invention I is drawn to a composition comprising gotu kola and a film former, whereas Invention III is drawn to a nail treatment application having a total weight of gotu kola.

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have materially different designs. Invention II is drawn to a topical nail application composition comprising a nail lacquer, at least one additional component and gotu kola, whereas Invention III is drawn to a nail treatment application having a total weight comprising gotu kola.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species from the genus linking Claim 10:

I. a composition having a total weight for topical application on a nail comprising gotu kola and a film former

II. a topical nail application composition comprising a nail lacquer, at least one additional component and gotu kola and;

III. a nail treatment application.

The species are independent or distinct for the reasons given above.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, Claim 10 is a genus-linking claim and will be examined with whichever Invention applicant elects.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
